The Health System in Aotearoa is entering a period of transformation as we implement the Pae Ora/Healthy Futures vision of a reformed system where people live longer in good health, have improved quality of life, and there is equity between all groups.

We want to build a healthcare system that works collectively and cohesively around a shared set of values and a culture that enables everyone to bring their best to work and feel proud when they go home to their whānau, friends and community. The reforms are expected to achieve five system shifts. These are:

1. The health system will reinforce Te Tiriti principles and obligations.
2. All people will be able to access a comprehensive range of support in their local communities to help them stay well.
3. Everyone will have equal access to high quality emergency and specialist care when they need it.
4. Digital services will provide more people the care they need in their homes and communities.
5. Health and care workers will be valued and well-trained for the future health system.

Te Mauri o Rongo – The New Zealand Health Charter

The foundation for how we ensure our people are empowered, safe and supported while working to deliver a successful healthcare system, is Te Mauri o Rongo – the New Zealand Health Charter. It guides all of us as we work towards a healthcare system that is more responsive to the needs of, and accessible to all people in Aotearoa New Zealand.

It applies to everyone in our organisation and sits alongside our code of conduct as our guiding document.

Te Mauri o Rongo consists of four pou (pillars) within it, including:

Wairuatanga – working with heart, the strong sense of purpose and commitment to service that health workers bring to their mahi.

Rangatiratanga – as organisations we support our people to lead. We will know our people; we will grow those around us and be accountable with them in contributing to Pae Ora for all.

Whanaungatanga – we are a team, and together a team of teams. Regardless of our role, we work together for a common purpose. We look out for each other and keep each other safe.

Te Korowai Āhuru – a cloak which seeks to provide safety and comfort to the workforce.

These values underpin how we relate to each other as we serve our whānau and communities.

Together we will do this by:

- caring for the people
- recognising, supporting and valuing our people and the work we all do
- working together to design and deliver services, and
- defining the competencies and behaviours we expect from everyone.

About the role

The primary purpose of the role is to:

Work with adult patients with communication and/or swallowing difficulties within Health NZ. To provide comprehensive patient assessment, in order to develop an agreed plan of care ensuring interventions provided are in line with contemporary, research and evidenced based practice in order to deliver safe, high quality clinical care.

ROLE PERSPECTIVE

The specific group of Allied Health services include Dietetics, Occupational Therapy, Physiotherapy, Speech-language Therapy, Social Work, Clinical Psychology (cancer services), Orthotics and Audiology. Services are delivered regionally across the inpatient, outpatients and community settings. Each department is supported by a Team Leader who reports to the Director of Allied Health.

The position is central to the Speech-language Therapy department, working collaboratively with Speech-language Therapy colleagues, other allied health staff, services and reporting to the Team Leader.

Health NZ (Nelson Marlborough) is responsible for the effective delivery of health and disability services to people of Nelson, Tasman and Marlborough. This includes hospital based services, community based services and referrals to and from appropriate tertiary centres.

Allied Health, Scientific and Technical professionals work in health care teams providing a range of diagnostic, technical, therapeutic and direct patient care and support services that are critical to the other health professionals they work with and the communities they serve.

This role will work collaboratively with all health professionals as well as the wider multi-disciplinary team throughout the Health NZ in a way that is consistent with the Organisation's vision and values.
